Statutory Declaration / Affidavit*

I hereby solemnly declare

....
Family name, given name(s)

....
date of birth

....
matriculation number under penalty of perjury, that I have independently authored the attached *term paper/essay/thesis

with the title

....

....

....

without help from a third party and without having used other means than the indicated resources and auxiliaries, and that I have made all passages recognizable as quotations that I have taken in letter or in spirit from the used sources. This also applies to subscriptions, sketches, pictorial representations, and the like as well as sources from the internet. I also declare that this paper or parts of it has not been submitted in the same or similar form in another university course. Furthermore, I assure you that I have labelled the use of Large Language Models (LLMs) such as Chat-GPT in the appropriate places and documented it in the footnotes.

By signing below, I consent that my work may be checked by means of a plagiarism software and that for this purpose electronic copies (in anonymized version) can be produced and stored.

....
Place, Date, and Author's Signature

* This declaration shall be attached to the independently authored term paper or essay as a supplement. Papers without this declaration will not be accepted. A false statutory declaration may be prosecuted by law. In case of plagiarism the University of Freiburg will inform the home university of international students.

 Please cross out if not applicable